The 14th Dealey Plaza UK Canterbury Seminar 23rd/24th April 2016

Welcome

I am delighted to welcome you all, especially those attending for the first time, to Canterbury Christ Church University to this our fourteenth Dealey Plaza UK International Weekend Seminar. I really hope that you all have a very enjoyable few days, and find the event an interesting and absorbing occasion.

Once again we are tremendously lucky to have a fantastic line-up of speakers to present papers to us on a wide variety of subjects. Larry Hancock, a well known researcher, historian, and published author, has been a regular contributor to our seminars both in person, and over several years, very successfully, by telephone link. I am delighted to say that Larry will again be presenting to us. Canterbury would not be the same without the superb input that Larry has provided to us over many years now. He will be talking to us this year on the National Security response of the various US government agencies, their performance criteria, whilst relating this to events such as the JFK Assassination, the Reagan shooting, and the 9/11 attacks.

A very warm welcome goes to Bart Kamp as a first time speaker at Canterbury. Bart has attended many of our mini-seminars in London and has always contributed in a very positive way, exhibiting a very deep knowledge of the Assassination, particularly of the individuals who were in Dealey Plaza that day. I would also like to welcome Malcolm Blunt, one of our long standing members, who is one of the most gifted researchers in all aspects of the Assassination. He will be taking part in a Q & A session with Bart on the subject of CIA and Lee Harvey Oswald.

Our other speakers, Alaric Rosman, Ian Griggs, Jean Shields, Paul Brown, & Bill Beadle, have all presented some superb papers to us in the past and I welcome them all back whilst looking forward very much to their presentations this year. My thanks also go to Barry Keane for agreeing to give a presentation of the words he spoke on the 22nd November 2015 at the Kennedy Memorial in Marylebone Road, London, during our annual remembrance gathering there.

I was reminded recently that 29th May next year will be the 100th anniversary of the birth of John Kennedy. I am sure that we will be “celebrating” that event in some way during 2017.

My sincere thanks go to Canterbury Christ Church University for once again allowing us to use the excellent facilities here in the Powell Building. We are very grateful indeed. In particular I would mention Kate Wicks, the Events and Marketing Coordinator here at the University, who has again gone out of her way to help make this weekend a success.

*The cost of freedom is always high, but Americans have always paid it and one path we shall never choose, and that is the path of surrender, or submission. John F Kennedy

CONTRIBUTOR PROFILES

MIKE DWORETSKY

Mike was an astronomer at University College, London and was also Director of the University of London Observatory. He grew up in California and was awarded his doctorate at UCLA, followed by two years of researching at Mount Wilson and Palomar Observatories before moving to England. He has been a student of the case since first attending a lecture by Mark Lane at UCLA in 1966. His first research was a photographic investigation, conducted with other students, to determine whether or not the shadows in the famous backyard photographs could be genuine. His interest was rekindled by reading Anthony Summer's Conspiracy in 1980 and discovering discrepancies in the acoustic evidence as presented to the HSCA. This led him into correspondence with the late Harold Weisberg. He is especially interested in the forensic aspects of the case. A founder member of DPUK in 1996, Mike has written articles for The Echo and has been a presenter at Canterbury in past years. His prowess as our auctioneer is now well established.

BILL BEADLE

Bill is one of those people who can recall exactly where they were on the night John F Kennedy was assassinated and has been fascinated by the case ever since. He has yet to write a book about it but he is the Author of two books on miscarriages of justice, one on boxing and two on Jack the Ripper, the second of which has just been published under the title 'Jack the Ripper Unmasked'. In addition to being a member of the Dealey Plaza society, he is President of the Whitechapel Society, a member of the Richard 111 Society and Mensa, for whom he writes on history, crime, and politics. Bill had presented papers at Canterbury many times before and will be talking to us this weekend about Presidential Assassinations.

PAUL BROWN

Paul has been interested in the assassination since his youth when he was introduced to the subject during the 30th anniversary. He has a degree in politics from The Open University and works in local government. As a member of DPUK since 2008 he has given presentations at Canterbury on various issues including the deaths of witnesses, the Dal-Tex building and the audio/visual evidence. He believes there was a conspiracy that most likely involved the same people linked to the CIA/Mafia plots against Fidel Castro."

Paul will be talking to us this weekend about "Fingerprints of Intelligence" continuing on from his presentation last year.

IAN LEONARD GRIGGS

Historian/author/researcher into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Former Ministry of Defence Police Officer (uniform and CID) 1971-1994. Retired in May 1994.

Born at Hornchurch, Essex in 1939, he has been interested in the assassination and its conspiratorial aspects since the day it happened. Now lives in the ancient market town of Waltham Abbey, Essex. Actively involved in original research since 1970. Has visited Dallas on many occasions and has travelled extensively throughout the United States studying the case. Has met and liaised with numerous eyewitnesses to the assassination, fellow researchers, journalists, police officers, and authors in the UK, USA, Canada and Europe. Areas of interest include: The Dallas Police Department, Jack Ruby, Kathy Kay (The English born stripper at the Carousel), the arrest of Oswald & the alleged assassination weapon. Ian has written several books on the case, including "No Case to Answer" and "Kennedy Assassinated – Oswald Murdered". He has presented papers at conferences all over the USA and has appeared on TV and radio shows. He has also been a regular contributor to the Canterbury Seminars.

He is currently working on the final stages of his fourth book on the Kennedy Assassination – provisionally entitled Signal 19: Elm and Houston.

ALARIC ROSMAN

Alaric was born in Rottingdean, Sussex in December 1934. He has been a lot of things in a quirky life: a National Serviceman (in the Air Force); a commission-only salesman; a London University (external) B.SC graduate, a state and private secondary school teacher, and, finally, a museum warder at the National Gallery, London, where he was the senior trade union representative. He vividly remembers the Assassination, and listened through most of the night to the news reports. Even at that very early stage, he felt that what he was hearing didn't ring quite true, a conviction that has grown stronger and sharper over now nearly 50 years.

Alaric joined DPUK in 2002, and since then has contributed nearly 30 articles to the Journal; this will be the tenth Seminar at which he has contributed a presentation. Alaric was also one of the authors who contributed to the DPUK book published in 2013, "JFK: Echoes from Elm Street".

Alaric will be talking to us this weekend about "Confusion over the Rifle"

LARRY HANCOCK

Larry is a graduate of the University of New Mexico with a BA in Education and majors in Anthropology, Sociology and Education. Following service in the United States Air Force, he worked in the telecommunications and computer communications fields for some 35 years - with Continental Telecom., Hayes Microcomputer and Zoom Technologies. During his career he held the positions of Technical Trainer, Technical and Engineering Training Manager, Marketing Manager and Marketing Director. He became involved with Kennedy assassination research in the early 1990's, and has focused on intelligence and national security aspects of the conspiracy.

He has published a variety of document collections and analysis on CD with JFK Lancer, contributed articles and essays to Lancer, DPUK, and the Mary Ferrell Foundation. His first book, with Connie Kritzberg (former Dallas reporter) was "November Patriots", a "docufiction" piece on the Kennedy Assassination. His second book, "Someone Would Have Talked", a factual study of the Kennedy conspiracy and cover-up is now in its third (2010) edition.

Larry has also done research on the RFK assassination, publishing a lengthy series of essays, Incomplete Justice, on the Mary Ferrell website and with Stuart Wexler spent some five years researching the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr.; the two wrote a book which documents a four year effort to kill Dr. King, entitled "Awful Grace of God". The book was published in 2012. He has also published a book entitled "Nexus: The CIA and Political Assassination (2011) and his latest e entitled "Shadow Warfare: The History of America's Undeclared Wars", was published in 2014

He was also one of the authors who contributed to the DPUK book published in 2013, "JFK: Echoes from Elm Street". Larry will be talking to us this weekend about the response of National Security agencies on 22nd Nov. and at other major events in American history. He will refer to some of the material from his latest book "Surprise Attack"

JEAN SHIELDS

Jean has never doubted that Oswald was a 'patsy'. Her mother came to that conclusion in November 1963 and Jean can remember discussing the 'set-up' as a child. She studied law before moving into the fields of advertising and journalism. Her interest in JFK was reinvigorated in the 1980s after doing some research into the life of Jackie Kennedy. She has just moved house and inherited a grand piano. She is thrilled that it was made in Boston in 1925, the year of Bobby Kennedy's birth. Kennedy had his Ivers & Pond piano installed in the White House. Jean will be talking to us this weekend about "Family& Friends" and the interesting connections that can ensue. Our family members and our chosen friends affect our lives and our decisions. She will consider how some relationships may have influenced history.

GREG PARKER

Greg Parker was born in Newcastle, NSW Australia in 1958. Since his late teens, he has traveled around "the wide brown land" working in various blue and white collar jobs including an 11 year stint as a federal public servant. Married with twin boys, he currently runs his own business in the Central West of NSW.

Greg's interest in the Kennedy assassination began in 1999 while living in Darwin and he was given a copy of Anthony Summer's "Conspiracy" to read. He was intrigued by the book and has been doing his own research since 2000. That same year, he was runner-up in the Darwin Poetry Cup, and had a lot of fun as a performance poet in between band sets at local venues.

His work on the Kennedy case has been widely cited in articles and books by such writers as Joan Mellen, George Michael Evica, Larry Hancock and Jim Di Eugenio.

BART KAMP

Bart Kamp has been studying the case since the release of JFK The Movie, starting to read the books of Garrison and Marrs shortly after the release of the film.

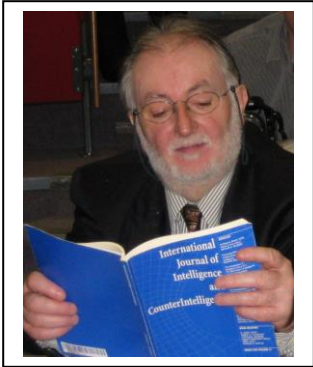

His first search string in the Excite search engine in 1995 was "Fletcher Prouty", a few years after that he went on hiatus for almost ten years after which he started to read many books concerning the investigation.

He has been involved with online activity as a lurker for a few years after which he decided to actively engage from 2013 "I got tired of just reading books, I wanted to get in the ring so to speak".

He is a member at a few forums with his base being the ROKC forum (Reopen Kennedy Case) where he is also a moderator. The appeal of collaborative research at ROKC was its main reason to join and participate. Of all forums ROKC is without a doubt the most progressive of its kind.

His main interest steers towards inside and around the TSBD and certain law enforcement individuals involved with the interrogation of Lee Oswald. Bart will be talking to us this weekend about "Prayer Man" and the many spin-off subjects.

MALCOLM BLUNT

Malcolm is known in the assassination research community for his encyclopaedic knowledge of the JFK records held at the National Archives II in College Park, MD. He was the 1998 recipient of JFK Lancer's New Frontier Award in appreciation for his contribution of new evidence in furthering the study of the assassination of President Kennedy. The Mary Ferrell Foundation interviewed him at the Washington-based AARC conference in November 2005. He has been a member of DPUK for many years and has attended many of these seminars. He has been guided by the idea that it's not necessarily what's in NARA that's interesting - but what's missing. Malcolm is BACS accredited counsellor who has recently retired after 32 years working in psychiatric rehabilitation. His interest in the JFK assassination commenced following a stop in Dallas on a U.S coach tour in 1987. In 1993 he attended his first conference and thereafter spent time researching at the Dallas Municipal Archives and later on at the National Archives; his focus right now is trying to get an understanding of historical CIA systems, organisation, and working methods.
